

THE WREN

NURTURE · CHALLENGE · INSPIRE

COMPLEMENTARY CURRICULUM

COMPLEMENTARY CURRICULUM

Has been created to complement students GCSE study in English and Maths, as well as providing additional qualifications that will support applications for next steps.

ASDAN	Functional Skills English	Edexcel Award in Number
3 Lessons per fortnight	2 lesson per fortnight	1 lesson per fortnight

HOW IS IT ASSESSED?

ASDAN	Functional Skills English	Edexcel Award in Number
Short projects that will be evidenced using the work you complete. Each module has credits. You need 14 credits to achieve the Personal Effectiveness Qualification Certificate	Functional skills qualification consists of: Internal: Speaking and listening assessment. External Exam Paper: Reading Paper Writing Paper	Level One Exam July of year 10 1 Paper – broken down into a non-calculator and Calculator Paper. This can be re done in year 11 at level 1 or level 2 depending on yr10 results.

WHERE CAN IT TAKE YOU NEXT?

Key transferable skills:

Oracy

Debate

Understanding viewpoints

Teamwork

Morals

Penmanship

Research

Typical next steps:

Apprenticeships

College courses

Public Sector qualifications

ANY QUESTIONS...

Complementary Curriculum is an invite only options subject.

Complementary curriculum has been suggested for your child if we feel it will have a positive impact on their KS4 journey.

